

2018 LOCAL GOVERNMENT
ELECTION

August 2, 2018

Information for residents of Tseshaht First Nation
Tsahaheh IR#1 and Teepis (Polly Point) IR#2

The following is provided to assist residents of the Tseshaht First Nation Tsahaheh and Teepis Reserves determine their eligibility to vote or to run as candidates in the upcoming local government election (October 20, 2018).

The City of Port Alberni's boundaries are defined by Letters Patent. The Tsahaheh and Polly Point Reserves are outside the City of Port Alberni's boundaries which means that residents who live in these areas are not eligible to vote in the City of Port Alberni's election for Mayor/Council. They can however, vote for Area Director and School Trustee in the Regional District jurisdiction in which they reside.

Tsahaheh residents will be able to vote in the Sproat Lake electoral area (if an election is declared in that area).

Polly Point residents will be able to vote in the Cherry Creek electoral area (if an election is declared in that area).

The official declaration of an election being held takes place on September 24, 2018 following which voting locations will be confirmed.

Interested in running for Local Government Office?

Candidates for the office of Mayor or Councillor; Electoral Area Director or School Trustee do not have to reside within a specific jurisdiction in order to run. For example, someone who lives outside the Alberni-Clayoquot Region can be nominated as a candidate for Mayor or Councillor in the City of Port Alberni or for Director in the Alberni Valley Electoral Areas or as School Trustee, assuming they meet the eligibility requirements.

The information in the attached News Release contains information helpful for those interested in running for local government office and provides details of qualifications for both candidates and nominators.
